

Sid Howes

18/10/1994

24 years old

Profile

An ambitious and hardworking individual with experience and knowledge within the industry of engineering. Working at one of the most recognisable and respectable companies in the world, British Airways.

Career History

- September 2012- present British Airways.
- September 2010 – August 2012 Abercrombie and Fitch (Saturday staff)

Key Skills and Personal Mix

- Strong Strategic thinker and organised individual.
- Intellectual and self-aware character with the ability to commit to the business to achieve their goals.
- Experience in meeting strict timings and deadlines.
- Used to working within a team in an engineering environment and able to work individually to complete a task.

Achievements

Completed a 3 year approved apprenticeship in aeronautical and aerospace engineering at British Airways. Now working as an aircraft engineer working with the engineering team to maintain the British Airways brand.

I am an ex British international Swimmer competed at a high International level. Including, county champion and London champion in the 200M, 400M, 800M and 1500m freestyle events.

Also completed a level 1 in sporting excellence within the swimming industry.

Work experience

- Buro Happold – Civil Engineering
- Millwall football club –involved with the development of the academy players
- Physical Education teacher/assistant – Hinchley wood primary school (old primary school)

Grades GCSE A-C

- Maths – A
- English Literature –A
- Physical Education – A
- Double Science – BB

Whilst studying for my A levels I was given the opportunity to apply for British Airways aircraft and aeronautical apprenticeship, in which I was successful.

Schools Attended

- Hinchley Wood primary School
- Glyn Technology School.

